iPad and iPad Wireless Bluetooth Keyboard With Leather Case

2 in 1 Wireless Bluetooth Keyboard and Leather Case – Convenient Wireless Keyboard Functionality on Your iPad/iPad2

Los Angeles, California, April 2, 2011 – Xmultiple releases their MultiplesPlus Wireless Bluetooth Keyboard for the iPad and iPad2.

Xmultiple released two models of our state of the art wireless bluetooth keyboard for the iPad / iPad2. The iXP1 EP-060201 and EP-060202 models of wireless keyboards provided the ease of typing with a hands on keyboard for your iPad and iPad2. Now iPad/iPad2 users have the same convenient keyboard capability they experience with their desktop and laptop computers. These models protected your iPad and iPad2 with an integrated leather protective case. The Xmultiple wireless bluetooth keyboards stand out for their comfortable fingertip touches, an easy learning curve, affordable price, and unique wireless Bluetooth connection. The media control keys are conveniently located on the keypad. The two models will provide iPad and iPad2 users with a keyboard they will appreciate.

The Xmultiple EP-606201 and EP-606201 not only protects your iPad/iPad2 when users are on the road but they also provide a hands-free stand when you reach your destination. The keys on both models are specially designed to cushion your iPad and iPad2 screen from bumps and scratches when the units are rubberized. The EP-060202 model has a soft smooth leather material and the EP-060201 model is a rough leather feel. Both models have magnet cover latches. The protective Leather case protects users iPad/iPad2's from knocks, dust, damage, and scratches.
