Do you work in an office that uses PCs, but enjoy checking your iPad on lunch hour or during breaks? Get a charge out of this new gadget!

Does your iPad start flashing that annoying “not charging” message while you’re reading your favorite magazine or shopping online? Sick of looking for a wall outlet that doesn’t already have five power strips plugged into it? Fire up your iPad on non-Apple computers or older Macs with this iXP1-500 USB adapter from XP1-Power. Hook it up between the iPad’s sync cable and the USB port on the PC to charge your tablet from any hardware. Buy this handy little charger for just $5 here.
